

What's Eating Your Collection?

Hide beetle Dermestes haemorrhoidalis

Adult beetle

Size: 10mm or over

Shape: Oval

Colour: Shiny black with gold hairs on underside

Antennae: short, 3 segmented club

Distinguishing features: none

Larvae are pests of: dried animal protein

Damage is: occasionally tunnels for pupation

Adults eat: very little

Often found: associated with human food debris in mess rooms and eating areas.

Pest of refuse collection areas of housing blocks. This is largely a city pest.

This species is very difficult to distinguish from Dermestes peruvianus

Related Objects

Dermestes larva

Hide or leather beetle
Dermestes maculatus

Larder beetle
Dermestes lardarius

Peruvian Hide beetle
Dermestes peruvianus

